

moda BAKESHOP

Original Recipe

Jumbo Coins Baby Quilt by Natalia Bonner

Hi there, it's Natalia from Piece N Quilt {piecenquilt.blogspot.com}! I'm super excited today to share this super simple baby quilt. I love giving baby quilts as gifts to friends when they have new babies so I'm always on the lookout for a simple but cute baby quilt pattern. Hope you enjoy this quilt today!

Ingredients:

- 1 Good Fortune Layer Cake
- 1 Yard Bella Solids White
- 1/4 Yard Coordinating Binding
- 2 Yards Moda Snuggles Backing {if you are using regular fabric for backing, you will need 4 yards}

Quilt kits are available over at Burgundy Buttons!
{<http://bit.ly/ouHocN>}

Original Recipe can be found at www.modabakeshop.com

Instructions:

Begin by cutting your layer cake in half. Creating 5"x10" rectangles.

From your Bella Solids White cut 14 - 2"x WOF strips.

Using the attached template cut 6 flower petals, one small flower center (3" circle, a cup works great for a template) and one large flower center (a 3 1/2" circle) and one large Bella Solids White circle (I used a large mixing bowl for this template).

Sew the 5"x10" rectangles into strips, 5 strips of 12 blocks.

I pieced the leftover strips together and pieced them into the backing.

Now sew the rows together using the 2" white fabric as your sashing and borders as shown in the image.

Using the applique technique of your choice applique the flower onto the lower right hand corner of the quilt top. I prefer to use starch appliqué {piecenquilt.blogspot.com/2009/11/starch-applique-tutorial.html}.

Quilt, bind and enjoy!

A super simple baby quilt that can be made in less than one day!

Yield:

1 - 58"x58" Jumbo Coins baby quilt.

I have to share a little picture of the quilt backing.

Original Recipe can be found at www.modabakeshop.com

Being a machine quilter I don't love working with minky type materials. But... I had never used the Moda Snuggles before so I decided that this was a great quilt to try it out on. Let me tell you! It is AWESOME!!! I will definitely use the Moda Snuggles AGAIN!

Thanks for checking out my tutorial today!

Stop by my blog to see what I'm up to!

Quilt kits are available over at Burgundy Buttons! {<http://bit.ly/ouHocN>}

Natalia Bonner
{piecenquilt.blogspot.com}

