Original Recipe

Mad for Yo-Yo's by Vickie Eapen

Ingredients:

- Spring Magic Charm Pack by April Cornell
- 2/3 yard border, binding & backing Spring Magic Trail Tulip sku # 35134 11
- 1/2 yard background Mill House Inn Clotted Cream sku# 20115 18
- Kyoto bamboo batting 21 X 21 inches
- Large Clover yo-yo maker
- Invisafil thread by Wonderfil

Original Recipe can be found at www.modabakeshop.com

Instructions:

- cut background fabric 15.5 inches by 18.5 inches

- make 23 yo-yo's with the large Clover yo-yo maker and 4 inch circles (charm squares work perfectly for these).

- Evenly space the yo-yo's across the 18.5 inches.
- approximately 3.5 inches from one center of a yo-yo to the next.
- and 1.5 inches from the corners of the background.

- showing the center to center measurement.

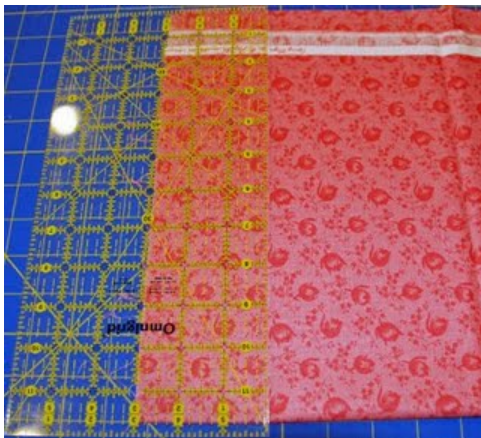

- pin all 23 yo-yo's in place.

- Using the invisibil thread and a buttonhole stitch, stitch around the outer edge of all the yo-yo's

- it may look like this.

- Cut 2 the border fabrics 2 inches X WOF.

- Subcut the borders into (2) 18.5 strips
- and (2) 18 inch strips

Original Recipe can be found at www.modabakeshop.com

- Add the 18.5 inch strips to the sides first
- then add the 18 strips to the top and bottom.
- Layer with batting, backing, and quilt with the invisifil thread
- bind with single fold binding

Yield:

18.5 inch X 21 inch small quilt for a doll, back of an chair, table decor, wall hanging or room accent.

I started making yo-yo's for my Candy Buttons Quilt and just kept going. I love to have projects to take with me for over lunch break, at doctors appointments etc. These were a perfect take along. Once I had the yo-yo's made...the rest sewed together in a few hours! Including the quilting. While making the pictures for this tutorial I stumbled upon placing on the back of my newer IKEA chair...it's as if it were made for it...and that's where it will stay. Enjoy!
