BAKESHOP

Original Recipe

Snowflakes are Falling by Natalia Bonner

Hi again! It's Natalia from Piece N Quilt {<http://www.piecenquilt.com>}. I am so excited about this new Christmas quilt. Even though I pieced and quilted the whole thing while it was 100 degrees outside, it still makes me excited for Christmas. Don't forget to stop by my blog {<http://www.piecenquilt.blogspot.com>} and my online quilt shop {<http://www.piecenquilt.com>} where kits and Fruitcake materials are available.

Ingredients:

- 1 Fruitcake Layer Cake
 - 2 Yards Fruitcake Grunge Sugar Cookies
 - 3 Yards Fruitcake Grunge Avalanche
 - 1/2 Yard Fruitcake Sugar Cookies
 - 4 1/2 Yards backing material
- Kits are available @ Piece N Quilt

Original Recipe can be found at www.modabakeshop.com

Instructions:

Start by cutting 168 - 4 1/2" squares.

Now take your 4 1/2" squares and draw a diagonal line across them.

Snowball all 42 of your layer cake squares. Sew across that diagonal line.

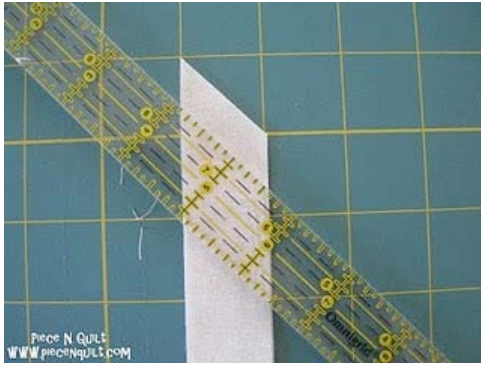

After you've sewn across that diagonal line you will trim the excess material away.

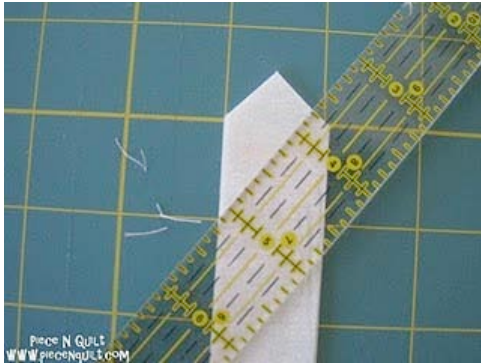

Now press the block. You should have 42 blocks that look like this block.

From the white material you will cut 18 - 1"x width strips.

Now cut those strips into 4"x1" strips.
You will now create the point for your snowflakes.
Cut a diagonal line.

Cut another diagonal line in the opposite direction to create a point.

Using our starch applique tutorial {<http://piecenquilt.blogspot.com/2009/11/starch-applique-tutorial.html>}, applique the points onto the 42 layer cake blocks as shown in the image.

Using the white grunge material, set your blocks using 1 1/2" sashing. Arrange the blocks 7 across by 6. Refer to the picture.

Add a 3 1/2" strip off Avalanche grunge material to the top of your quilt.

Then add a 9" strip of the Fruitcake Sugar Cookies material to the top.

Now quilt, bind and enjoy all winter long.

I like to add coordinating pillowcases {<http://piecenquilt.blogspot.com/2010/04/vernas-pillowcases-tutorial.html>} to my quilts. Use our pillow case tutorial on my blog to make these darling Christmas pillowcases.

Yield:

1- 72 1/2"x74" Snowflakes are Falling quilt.
