BAKESHOP

Original Recipe

Pure Love by Jera Brandvig

Hi Everyone! It's Jera from {QuiltingInTheRain.blogspot.com} bringing you another MBS tutorial! This is a simple and beautiful quilt that will make your favorite fabrics pop! Check out my 3-step tutorial below that uses jelly roll strips to make the entire quilt top.

I used the Summer House collection by Lily Ashbury. Make one yourself and checkout my blog at {QuiltingInTheRain.blogspot.com} for a chance to win a Terrain jelly roll by Kate Spain!

Ingredients:

- 1 jelly roll (you will have plenty of leftover strips!)
- 1 solid white jelly roll
- 3 yards backing

Original Recipe can be found at www.modabakeshop.com

Step 1 - Trim the strips from both the colored and solid white jelly roll to the exact measurements represented in the cutting diagram below. (Note: the measurements below are the exact cutting measurements of the unfinished pieces). Since a jelly roll strip is 2.5"x44" long, in some cases you will need to sew a couple strips together and then trim it to get the measurements shown below.

Step 2 - Using a 1/4" seam allowance, sew all the pieces in each row together, and then sew all rows together.

Step 3 - Add the borders. Sew enough strips together until you have these measurements:

1. Left and right borders - 46.5" long. Sew these on first.
2. Top and bottom borders - 57" long.

Layer and quilt.

Sew together six leftover strips to create the binding. A binding tutorial can be found here <http://quiltingintherain.blogspot.com/2011/05/binding-blind-stitching-tutorial.html>. That's it! Simple and absolutely beautiful! Let me know if you have any questions. :)

Happy Quilting!

Yield:

57" x 50.5"
