One of the things on my lifetime to do list is to create an amazing crazy quilt. As the years slide by I realize this may not happen, so I decided to give myself a bit of a break and draw my crazy quilt! As far as a theme goes there are a few things that thread together through the blocks: homes, birds, flowers, but for the most part I wanted to keep my mind open and doodle. I looked back through my “doodle” or sketch books, found bits and pieces from these pages and assembled them together to share with you on this “crazy quilt”.
