The Jungs

It's that time again - Spring!

We want to spend the day outside, our senses on high alert. The sun feels warm and the air smells fresh; the meadows are green and sprinkled with wild flowers. We grab our baskets and head up the hill to the local strawberry patch to see bright red berries nestled in rich green foliage and busy bees collecting nectar from the tiny buds. We've tried to capture these images and vibrant colors of spring in Bumble Berries. We hope you enjoy the view!
