Fall in the Midwest is rendered in deep, rich colors. While we often think of fall as being colored in shades of gold, rust and red, it is the deeper, darker hues of blue and brown that reflect the true nature of fall. Fallen leaves are scattered on fields of Midnight Blue, Chestnut Brown and Berry Red. Enjoy the beauty of Jan Patek’s Sycamore this Fall.
Autumn is the time of picturesque tranquility.

-Sir Kristian Goldmund Aumann

-36 Prints
-JR's, LC's, MC's, and PP's include two each of 2099.

36 Prints
100% Premium Cotton
JR's, LC's, MC's, and PP's include two each of 2099.