Have you ever been waiting in line at the grocery store or on an airplane and struck up a conversation with the woman next to you? Chances are it is a brief comment on the weather or current events until you find out she's a quilter and you know you've just made an instant friend. The connections we make with our quilting friends is based on a mutual passion for creating, sharing and supporting. They help us shop and select the perfect pattern & fabrics, cheer us on through a difficult piecing project, and cheer enthusiastically when we show the finished quilt, even when it's not perfect. We can turn to them for personal reassurance, to overcome creative roadblocks and to listen - really listen - to our hopes, dreams and crazy ideas like only a woman friend can. This fabric collection began with a lovely vintage floral print found by a dear friend, Pam Buda, of Heartspun Quilts. Even though she designs fabric for another company, she knew I would love this fabric and saved it for me. Our love of quilting brought us together and our mutual addiction to antiques has made the bond even stronger. We are each other's sounding boards, editors and cheerleaders. Pam, this one's for you, my friend…
