THE ALLIANCE FOR AMERICAN QUILTS

Join the Celebration!

The Alliance for American Quilts, a national nonprofit organization founded in 1993 and now headquartered in Asheville, North Carolina supports and develops projects to document, preserve, and share the history and stories of quilts and quiltmakers. The Alliance brings together institutions and individuals from the creative, scholarly and business worlds of quilting to advance the recognition of quilts in American culture.

THE ALLIANCE'S FOUR CORE PROJECTS INCLUDE:

THE QUILT INDEX

A national online database of quilt images and records bringing together institutional and grassroots collections. Institutional partner: Michigan State University

QUILTERS' S.O.S. – SAVE OUR STORIES

Grassroots oral history project preserving the stories of today's quiltmakers from all over the US and abroad. Archived at the Library of Congress' American Folklife Center

QUILT TREASURES

Multi-media portraits profiling key quilt revival pioneers including quiltmakers, historians, collectors, teachers. Institutional partner: Michigan State University

BOXES UNDER THE BED

Rescue and recovery efforts to save quilt memorabilia, preserving items families and collectors find in boxes of quilts. Institutional partner: the University of Texas at Austin, Center for American History's, Winedale Center for the Quilt
