

stuff to get

1 Who doesn't love ribbon? Finding the perfect ribbon can be the highlight of a project. The Ribbon Spot has lots of colors and designs to choose from, including paisley, polka dots, snowflakes, flip-flops, hearts, Christmas stripes and more. Ribbons are sold by the yard. theribbonspot.com

2 Teach someone to sew retro style with Learn to Sew Lace Up Cards from Moda Home. The kit includes three colors of yarn, large plastic needles and six cards with pre-punched holes. Visit modahome.com to find a retailer near you.

3 The Evening Pin cushion from Brush Hollow Studio keeps pins corralled and acts as a conversation piece. Made from hand-dyed felted wool, the pin cushion's bright colors will be a welcome addition to your sewing room. evening.com or spicedwool.com

4 If the entertainment industry is any indication, penguins are hot! Add these cute little critters to your next craft project with handmade, hand-painted buttons from Incomparable Buttons. buttonmad.com

5 Communicate the old-fashioned way with the cool Dots & Jots Notebook featuring vintage fabric designs by Derynne Schmidt. Includes 24 notecards bound along perforated edge for easy removal and 24 envelopes. $15.95 dchenotebooks.com (800) 722-6657

